guarded welcome to Edinburgh's new transport system is, 44 Scotland Street is an episodic novel by Alexander McCall Smith the author of the No. 1 Ladies Detective Agency. The story was first published as a serial in the Scotsman starting 26 January 2004 every weekday for six months. The book retains the 100 short chapters of the original. It was partially influenced by Armistead Maupin, although Scotland Street is real and can indeed be visited as we did. No. 44, not surprisingly, is fictional due to the risk of people readers etc knocking on the door. Scotland Street, the street was on the edge of the bohemian part of the Edinburgh neighbourhood.

From the publisher welcome to 44 Scotland Street home to some of Edinburgh's most colorful characters there is Pat a twenty-year-old who has recently moved into a flat with Bruce an athletic young man with a keen awareness of his own appearance their neighbor Domenica is an eccentric and insightful widow in the
