"Amazon.de Yet more wisdom cast down from high atop Mt. Seuss, this cheerful trio of tales teaches some valuable lessons in humility--thanks to a sharp-eyed worm, a bragging bear and rabbit, a fuzzy-tailed bird, and a couple hundred turtles led by their foolish King Yertle. Yertle's story leads off with his attempt to build a bigger kingdom on the backs of his loyal subjects (literally). King of everything he can see, Yertle orders his turtles to stack up under him to build a towering throne. ('He made each turtle stand on another one's back and he piled them all up in a nine-turtle stack.') But a plain little turtle named Mack--stuck at the bottom--decides he's had enough. ('I know up on top you are seeing great sights, but down on the bottom we, too, should have rights!') Following Yertle's downfall, a whiny girl-bird named Gertrude McFuzz wishes she had two feathers, just like Miss Lolla-Lee-Lou: 'One droopy-droop feather. That's all that she had. And, oh! That one feather made Gertrude so sad.' But even when Gertrude gets her wish--and then some--she finds that vanity has its price. Meanwhile, in 'The Big Brag,' a proud rabbit and an even-prouder bear duke it out in a battle of the senses, arguing over who's the best of the beasts, only to get their clever comeuppance from a wild-eyed little worm. (Ages 4 to 8) --Paul Hughes Synopsis Includes three humorous stories in verse: Yertle the Turtle, Gertrude McFuzz, and The Big Brag. Alle Produktbeschreibungen"
