"Werbetext Travel writer and Canadian resident Carolyn B. Heller offers her unique perspective on this multicultural destination, from its rugged wilderness and pristine lakes to its thriving cities. Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Carolyn B. Heller first vacationed in Ontario as a child, spending family holidays exploring the Thousand Islands, touring Canada's tomato capital, and cruising under the spray at Niagara Falls. Later, she took her own daughters to Niagara, where their favorite activities were anything that involved getting wet. After moving from the United States to Canada in 2003, Carolyn explored the province more deeply, scouting out Toronto's multicultural neighborhoods and taking in theater festivals at Stratford and Niagara-on-the-Lake. She also explored Ontario's outdoors, from the Bruce Peninsula's rocky shores to the pink cliffs of Killarney and the lakes and trails in Algonquin Provincial Park. A full-time travel, food, and feature writer, Carolyn is the author of several other Moon titles, including Moon Vancouver, Moon Vancouver & Canadian Rockies Road Trip, and Moon Living Abroad in Canada. She has contributed to more than 50 travel and restaurant guides to destinations ranging from Canada to China. Her articles have appeared in Forbes Travel Guide, Hotel-Scoop, Viator Travel, the Los Angeles Times, Boston Globe, FamilyFun, Real Weddings, and Perceptive Travel, among many other publications. Carolyn is an avid traveler, cultural adventurer, and passionate food lover who has explored nearly 50 countries on six continents. A graduate of Brown University, she lives with her husband in Vancouver, British Columbia. Follow Carolyn's adventures at cbheller.com and on Instagram @CarolynBHeller."
